The musical score is written for guitar in D major (two sharps). It consists of three systems. The first system (measures 21-25) features a melody in the treble clef and a bass line with fret numbers. Chords A, D, and G are indicated above the staff. The second system (measures 26-30) continues the melody and bass line, with chords D and A indicated. The third system (measures 31-32) concludes the piece with a final chord D. The bass line includes various techniques such as sixteenth notes, eighth notes, and rests, with some measures containing plus signs (+) indicating specific fretting or techniques.
