

SIMPLY DUETS (SD62)

Get Up And Bar The Door

D-A-D Key of D

B_m

Part One

The				wind blew high, the				wind blew cold, It
"Oh,				I have worked so				hard," said he, "I
The				wind blew east, the				wind blew west, It
"Oh,				is the own - er				of this house, A
"Let's				pull the old man's				beard," said one, "Let's
"Oh, you'll				not kiss my				wife," said he, "I'll
0 0				2 2 2 x				2 2 2 2
1 1				1 1 1 0				1 1 1 1
2 1				0				0 0 1

blew a - cross the				moor, When		John Jones said to know I can't do				more; So		come, my own, my blew all over the				floor, But		nei - ther one would rich man or a				poor?" But		nei - ther one would beat him till he's				sore." But		still the old throw you on the				floor." Said		she, "Now, John, you've
0 0 0 0				0 0		2 2 0 0
3 3 3 3				3 3		3 3 3 3
2 4 4 2				4 4		5 5 4 4

Jane, his wife, "Get				up and bar the		door."
dear - est wife, Get				up and bar the		door."
say a word, For				bar - rin' of the		door.
say a word, For				bar - rin' of the		door.
man wouldn't speak, For				bar - rin' of the		door.
spok - en first, So get				up and bar the		door."
0 0 1 1 1				0 2 2 x		2
1 1 0 0 0				1 1 1 0		1
2 2 1 0 1				2

©tab & arr Maureen Sellers 7/2002

For a simple duet, alternate singing and playing. As one person sings let the other play backup chords or the melody. This gives the audience a chance to hear two different dulcimers and singing voices. For an instrumental break, try playing chords with the melody.

SIMPLY DUETS (SD63)

Get Up And Bar The Door

D-A-D Key of D

Part Two

B_m

"Oh, I	have worked all the	day," said she, "I've
Then	they a - greed be -	tween the two, A Three	rob - bers came a -	long that way, They
They	ate the bread, they	drank the ale, Then
"I'll	kiss his pret - ty	wife," said one, "Oh,
0 0	2 2 2 x	2 2 2 2
1 1	1 1 1 0	1 1 1 1
2 1	0	0 0 1

D B_m D

washed and scrubbed the	floor, You	la - zy man get sol - emn oath they	swore, That the	one who spoke the came a - cross the	moor; They	saw a light and said, "Come, give us	more." But	nei - ther one would her I could a -	dore." And	then the old man
0 0 0 0	0 0 0	2 2 0 0
3 3 3 3	3 3 3	3 3 3 3
2 4 4 2	4 4 4	5 5 4 4

B_m A B_m

up, I say, Get	up and bar the	door."
the very first word, Would	have to bar the	door.
walked right in, Right in	through the o - pen	door.
say a word, For	bar - rin' of the	door.
shook his fist, And	gave a migh - ty	roar.
0 0 0 1 1 1	0 2 2 x	2
1 1 1 0 0 0	1 1 1 0	1
2 2 2 1 0 1	2

Intro..... ©tab & arr Maureen Sellers 7/2002