

SIMPLY DUETS (SD85)

There's More Pretty Girls Than One

D-A-D- Key of D

Goodbye, Little Bonnie, Blue Eyes

Traditional

										D		Harmony A						D
There's										more		pret - ty girls				than		one		There's
0										0		0 0 0 4				4 4		4		0
3										3		3 5 5 4				4 4		3		5
2										4		4 7 7 6½				6½ 4		2		7

G								D
more				pret - ty girls				than				one.
0				0 0 0				0				0 0
6				6 6 6				1				0 0
7				7 7 7				3				2 2

Bm D						A						D
ram-ble a - round, There's						more						pret-ty girls than						one.
0 0 0 0 0 0						0 0 0 0 4 4 4						4
3 3 3 1 0 0						0 0 5 5 4 4 4						3
2 2 0 2 2 4						4 4 7 7 6½ 4 3						2

©tab & arr Maureen Sellers 6/2002

Goodbye, Little Bonnie, Blue Eyes

Sung by Gordon Tanner from Gwinnett County, GA.

Goodbye, little Bonnie, blue eyes,

Goodbye, little Bonnie, blue eyes,

I'm going out West where I can do best,

Goodbye, little Bonnie, blue eyes.

The train is rollin' around,

The train is rollin' uptown;

The train is rollin' to carry me away,

Goodbye, little Bonnie, blue eyes.

My trunk is done packed and gone

My trunk is done packed and gone,

My trunk is packed to never come back,

Goodbye, little Bonnie, blue eyes.

You promised to marry me,

You promised to marry me,

You promised that you would marry me

Down under that coconut tree.

I asked your father for you

I asked your mother too;

I asked them once, I asked them twice,

I asked them good and nice.

Now there's more pretty girls than one,

There's more pretty girls than one,

There's more than one, there's more than two,

But none in this world like you.

The train's done come and gone,

The train's done come and gone,

It's gone, gone to never come back,

Goodbye, little Bonnie, goodbye.

Goodbye, little Bonnie, blue eyes,

Goodbye, little Bonnie, blue eyes,

Goodbye, little Bonnie, don't cry, if you do,

You'll spoil your beautiful eyes.

Arthur Tanner recorded My Bonnie's Blue Eyes in 1927. It was never released.

Gordon Tanner recorded Goodbye, Little Bonnie, Blue Eyes in 1979.